Wise Workers Unite

Directions: Read each short workplace scenario below. Then, write one or two sentences explaining what a responsible worker should do in that situation. Use clear reasoning and positive problem-solving skills.

1. The Late Start: Jordan realizes they're going to be 15 minutes late for their shift at the local bakery. What should Jordan do before arriving at work?
2. The Team Mess: During cleanup time, some coworkers leave early without helping. You notice the area still needs a lot of work. How can you handle this situation responsibly?
3. The Misunderstanding: A manager blames you for a mistake you didn't make. You know who actually made the error but don't want to cause trouble. What's the best way to respond?
4. The Fairness Issue: One coworker is always given the easiest jobs, while others get harder tasks. How could you respectfully bring this up to your supervisor?
5. The Safety Slip: You see a spill on the floor that could make someone fall. You're not assigned to that area, but no one else has noticed. What should you do?
6. The Tech Trouble: A coworker asks you to share your password so they can finish a task quickly. It feels wrong, but they say it's "no big deal." What's the right choice?
