The Mountain Hike

The seventh-grade outdoor club went on a hike up Pine Ridge Trail last Saturday. The trail was steep, and many students stopped to catch their breath along the way. Tall trees lined the path, giving the air a fresh smell. Halfway up, the hikers reached a clearing with a spectacular view of the valley below. Mia pointed out a sparkling stream that wound its way through the forest. When they finally reached the top, everyone was amazed by the enormous boulders that surrounded the peak. The group ate lunch while enjoying the sunshine and then carefully made their way back down the trail.
