

Name _____

Treasure Hunt for Supporting Details! Answer Key

1. Penguins are well adapted to living in cold places.

- ✓ Penguins have a thick layer of fat under their skin called blubber.
- ✓ They often huddle together to stay warm in freezing temperatures.
- ✓ Some penguins can slide on their bellies across the snow to travel quickly.
- ✗ Penguins eat mostly fish and krill from the ocean.
- ✗ Lions live in warm environments like the African savanna.

2. Mia is a very responsible pet owner.

- ✓ Mia feeds her dog every morning before school.
- ✗ She once won a ribbon for a science project on volcanoes.
- ✓ She takes her dog for walks, even when it's raining.
- ✓ Mia taught her dog how to sit and shake paws.
- ✗ Her favorite color is purple, and she likes to paint.

3. Thunderstorms can cause many problems.

- ✓ Thunderstorms bring heavy rain that can flood roads and houses.
- ✓ Lightning can strike trees or buildings and cause fires.
- ✗ Some people enjoy the sound of rain when they sleep.
- ✓ Strong winds from thunderstorms can knock out power lines.
- ✓ During a storm, pets may hide under the bed because of the loud noise.

4. Reading every day can improve your brain.

- ✓ Reading helps build a strong vocabulary.
- ✗ Books are sometimes turned into movies.
- ✓ Students who read regularly often perform better in school.
- ✗ Spending time with friends is also important for your health.
- ✓ Reading can also improve your focus and memory.

5. Bicycles are an eco-friendly way to travel.

- ✓ Riding a bike doesn't use any gas, so it doesn't pollute the air.
- ✗ Some bicycles have colorful streamers on the handles.
- ✓ Biking helps reduce traffic and makes cities less crowded.
- ✓ Bikes don't make noise, which helps keep the environment quieter.
- ✗ Many people also enjoy skateboarding in the park.