Part 1: Lena had been stuck on Level 49 of Cyber Depths for three days. No matter what strategy she tried, the boss monster-some kind of electric spider-kept zapping her before she could finish the level.

Her friend Caleb texted her:

"Try that weird door near the blue cube. I think it's a secret path."

Lena raised an eyebrow. She hadn't noticed any door.

She restarted the game and looked carefully this time.

There it was-a small, blinking outline almost hidden behind the scenery.

Part 2: Lena entered the secret door and found herself in a dark tunnel lined with glowing runes. At the end, a new menu appeared: "Weapon Upgrade Unlocked: Static Shield."

She equipped it and restarted the boss battle.

"No way," Lena whispered. She launched a counter-attack.
