

Name _____

Write the Ending Answer Key (Sample Endings for Teacher Use)

These are example endings based on context and genre. Student answers will vary and should be evaluated on creativity, logical consistency, and use of clues from the story.

---

Story 1 Sample Ending:

Jordan nervously met his best friend Leo under the bleachers. Leo explained that someone had hacked into the school's science fair project files—and they were being blamed. The “they” were the judges, who suspected cheating. The note was a warning and a chance to come clean before being suspended. Together, they made a plan to prove their innocence.

---

Story 2 Sample Ending:

As Nina moved deeper into the woods, she found herself walking in circles, though she hadn't turned. The trees seemed to shift. Suddenly, she stepped into a clearing with an old stone archway and symbols carved into it. A voice whispered her name. Her brother had found this place before—and escaped. Now it was Nina's turn to solve the puzzle to get out before time ran out.