Riddle Files from the Inference Bureau

You've been assigned to Case File #17 – Operation Riddle Reveal. Inside are ten mysterious riddles. Each one describes a person, place, object, or situation without naming it directly. Use your inference skills to figure out what or who is being described.

Instructions: Read each riddle carefully. Use clues and logic to infer the answer. Write your answer below each riddle.

Riddle 1: I wear no hat, yet I have a brim.
I hold your thoughts and keep them in.
You take me to school or work each day,
But when you're done, you put me away.

Who or what am I?

---

Riddle 2: I don't have legs, but I run nonstop.
You check me often, maybe a lot.
Sometimes I buzz, sometimes I chime-
I help you know the exact time.

Who or what am I?

---

Riddle 3: I don't speak, but I give commands.
I live in your pocket or in your hands.
Apps and games are part of me,
Without me, where would TikTok be?

Who or what am I?

---

Riddle 4: I open wide but never eat,
My insides lined with comfy seats.
I'm loud and fast, and yellow too—
I come to pick up kids like you.

Who or what am I?
