

Name _____

Online Courtesy Quiz

Directions: Read each situation about online behavior. Choose the most polite and respectful response (A-D).

1. You receive an email from your teacher reminding you of a missed assignment. How should you reply?
A. "Yeah, I'll do it when I feel like it."
B. "Got it. I'll turn it in later."
C. "Thank you for the reminder. I'll submit it as soon as possible."
D. "Stop emailing me about it."
2. A friend posts a photo of themselves, but you don't like how they look. What is the most respectful choice?
A. Leave a rude comment as a joke.
B. Say nothing or leave a kind comment.
C. Share it with others to make fun.
D. Tag more people and laugh about it.
3. You are in a group chat for a class project. A member hasn't responded in a day. What should you do?
A. Send a polite message asking if they saw the last update.
B. Remove them from the group.
C. Send multiple angry messages in all caps.
D. Ignore them and finish the work alone.
4. You're upset about something and want to post online. What's the best action?
A. Type everything you're thinking right away.
B. Post a long rant and tag people involved.
C. Make fun of others to feel better.
D. Take a break and think before posting.
5. You text your teacher for help after school hours. What tone should you use?
A. "Hey what's the answer for #4?"
B. "Can u help me now???"
C. "Hello Mr. Grant, could you please explain question 4 when you have time?"
D. "Never mind, I'll just skip it."
6. A classmate disagrees with your opinion in an online discussion. What is the polite response?
A. "You're wrong. That's stupid."
B. "Good point, but here's what I think."
C. "Whatever, I don't care."
D. "Stop replying to me."
7. Your friend sends you a funny meme during class. What should you do?
A. Wait until later to look at it.
B. Text them back and ask for more.
C. Watch it and laugh out loud.
D. Show everyone around you right away.
8. You accidentally send a message to the wrong person. What is the polite thing to do?
A. Ignore it and hope they don't notice.
B. Blame someone else.
C. Make a joke about it to cover up.
D. Send a quick apology for the mistake.