

Global Politeness Answer Key

Sample Responses:

1. By bowing.
2. It shows confidence and respect.
3. The left hand is considered impolite for certain actions.
4. A light kiss on the cheek.
5. They all show respect and kindness to others.
6. Answers will vary (Example: Bowing shows deep respect because it requires thought and effort).
7. Answers will vary (Example: It helps you avoid misunderstandings and show respect in diverse settings).
8. Answers will vary (Example: Saying "thank you" shows appreciation and politeness).

Teacher's Guide:

- Differentiation Tips: Read the passage aloud and discuss key terms such as "formality," "tradition," and "respect." Offer visuals of global greetings to support comprehension.
- Engagement Ideas: Have students demonstrate or role-play greetings from different cultures while discussing when and why each is appropriate.
- Extension Activities: Ask students to research one country's etiquette and present a short summary on how politeness is expressed there. Encourage a class discussion comparing how cultural manners shape first impressions and relationships.