

Choose Polite Actions

Directions: Read each short situation and choose the most polite response. Circle the letter of the answer that shows good manners.

1. You accidentally bump into a classmate in the hallway.
 - A. Walk away quickly.
 - B. Laugh and keep going.
 - C. Say, "Sorry, are you okay?"
 - D. Tell them to move next time.
2. Your teacher hands back your graded paper.
 - A. Grab it without saying anything.
 - B. Say, "Thank you."
 - C. Say, "Finally!"
 - D. Ignore the teacher.
3. You need to ask your friend for a pencil during a lesson.
 - A. Tap them loudly until they look at you.
 - B. Shout, "Give me a pencil!"
 - C. Take one from their desk.
 - D. Wait quietly and then whisper, "Excuse me, can I borrow a pencil?"
4. A friend drops their lunch tray in the cafeteria.
 - A. Help pick it up and say, "It's okay."
 - B. Laugh because it was funny.
 - C. Walk away and ignore it.
 - D. Tell everyone what happened.
5. Your neighbor waves and says hello to you on the way home.
 - A. Look the other way.
 - B. Run inside quickly.
 - C. Pretend you didn't hear them.
 - D. Wave back and say, "Hello!"
6. You receive a gift for your birthday.
 - A. Smile and say, "Thank you for the gift."
 - B. Ask if they brought a receipt.
 - C. Open it and say nothing.
 - D. Tell them you wanted something else.
7. Someone holds the door open for you.
 - A. Walk through without looking.
 - B. Say, "Thanks for holding it!"
 - C. Tell them they were supposed to do that.
 - D. Wait until they let go and open it yourself.
8. You sneeze during class.
 - A. Keep sneezing loudly.
 - B. Don't cover your mouth.
 - C. Cover your mouth and say, "Excuse me."
 - D. Say nothing and laugh.