The Perfect Title

Directions: Read each passage carefully. Four possible titles are given for each passage. Circle the letter of the title that best matches the passage.

1. The little garden behind Mateo's house was more than just soil and seeds—it was a place of discovery. Every morning, he checked on the sprouts, carefully watering them and watching as tiny leaves unfolded. He noticed how the sun followed the plants, and he even drew sketches in a notebook to track their growth. His favorite day was when the first bright red tomato appeared, proof that his patience had paid off. For Mateo, tending his plants wasn't a chore; it was an adventure in learning.

- A. A Farmer's Fortune
- B. The Secret Garden Keeper
- C. The Growing Experiment
- D. Summer Storms

2. When the town clock struck midnight, Clara slipped into the library with her lantern. Unlike other children, she was not afraid of the dark aisles of books. She believed each shelf held whispers from the past, voices of authors who lived long ago. One night, she discovered a small diary tucked behind dusty volumes. Reading its entries, Clara felt as if she had stepped into another century. The library became her time machine, carrying her on adventures beyond imagination.

- A. Clara's Time Machine
- B. A Midnight Feast
- C. The Broken Clock
- D. Hidden in the Woods

3. The waves crashed against the rocks as Elias tightened his grip on the boat's wheel. The storm made the sky as dark as night, even though it was still morning. Rain pelted his face, and the wind fought against his sails, but he refused to turn back. His father had once told him that real sailors trusted their instincts, not the weather. With determination, Elias guided the boat through the chaos, knowing the calm sea would come if he endured.

- A. Songs of the Sea
- B. The Golden Treasure
- C. Rainy Day Picnic
- D. A Test of Courage
