Headline Structure Match

Journalists and authors choose a text structure to organize their ideas. Even the headline can give you a clue about which structure is coming next.

The five common structures are:

- Cause & Effect
- Chronological/Sequence
- Problem & Solution
- Compare & Contrast
- Description

Directions: Read the headlines below. Match each one with the structure it most likely uses. Write the correct structure on the line.

1. "Why Rising Gas Prices Are Driving Up Grocery Costs"

Structure: _____

2. "From Idea to iPhone: The Journey of a Smartphone"

Structure: _____

3. "Flooded Streets: How Cities Are Solving Stormwater Problems"

Structure: _____

4. "Dogs vs. Cats: Which Pet Fits Your Lifestyle?"

Structure: _____

5. "Inside the Amazon Rainforest: A Look at Nature's Wonders"

Structure: _____

Create Your Own: Write one new headline for each of the five text structures.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
