

Name _____

Patterns in Everyday Texts

Directions: Read each real-world example. Decide which structure it most likely uses. Write your answer on the line.

1. A car commercial shows a driver stuck in traffic, then highlights how the company's new navigation system solves the problem.

Structure: _____

2. An instruction manual explains how to set up a Wi-Fi router, listing each step in order with numbered directions.

Structure: _____

3. A biography of Martin Luther King Jr. describes his childhood, education, and major achievements in order from birth to death.

Structure: _____

4. A science magazine article explains that factory smoke increases air pollution, which leads to health problems for nearby residents.

Structure: _____

5. A travel brochure paints a picture of Hawaii with vivid details about sandy beaches, lush forests, and colorful wildlife.

Structure: _____

6. A school newsletter compares the benefits of playing soccer with those of joining the debate team.

Structure: _____

Make the Match Personal: Think of one real-world example for one structure. For example: "Cause & Effect → A weather app showing how heat waves cause electricity blackouts."