(Answers may vary; students' creativity should be encouraged.)

Quick Tips for Differentiation:

- Grades 3-4: Provide a list of vivid adjectives for students to choose from.
- Grade 5: Challenge students to replace two adjectives in each sentence with completely original ones.
- Advanced students: Ask them to explain how their new adjectives change the tone or imagery.

Engagement Ideas:

- Have students share their rewritten sentences aloud and vote on the most vivid version.
- Use a "Patriotic Word Wall" featuring powerful adjectives like "heroic," "valiant," "radiant," and "courageous."
- Let students illustrate one rewritten sentence to show the image their adjectives create.

Extension Ideas:

- Write a short poem or paragraph using at least five new adjectives learned from this activity.
- Encourage students to find adjectives in other patriotic songs or poems (like "America the Beautiful").
- Combine all student sentences into a class poem titled "Our Parade of Freedom."
