Teacher's Guide

- Use as an exit ticket or start-of-class warm-up.
- Review each question aloud after completion to clarify misunderstandings.
- Encourage students to justify their answers using prior learning.

Differentiation

- Provide answer choices on separate cards to sort for tactile learners.
- Read questions aloud for students needing decoding help.
- Challenge advanced learners to write their own quiz question at the end.

Engagement Ideas

- Turn into a team competition: one point per correct answer.
- Students show responses on small whiteboards for quick checks.

Extension Activities

- Ask students to write one sentence explaining why the Missouri Compromise was important.
- Create a mini timeline adding Missouri and Maine with labels "slave" and "free."
