Directions: Read the paragraph. Highlight or underline any biased or subjective words and phrases. Then answer the questions below.

I had to sit through another so-called team meeting after school, even though most of it was just Mr. Larkin repeating obvious points everyone already knew. He acted like his ideas were groundbreaking, but the rest of us could tell he just liked hearing himself talk. By the time it ended, I felt more tired than when practice ended, and that says a lot.

1. List three words or phrases that show bias or opinion.

2. Explain how the narrator's word choices shape the tone of the paragraph.

3. Rewrite one sentence from the paragraph in a more neutral voice.
