Teacher's Guide

- Use this worksheet to help students identify how tone creates mood and guides the reader's feelings.

- Review the meaning of each tone before beginning: excited, gloomy, nervous, peaceful. Provide short examples if needed.

- Encourage students to underline clue words in each sentence that hint at tone.

- Differentiation tips:

  o Provide a word bank with short definitions for emerging readers.

  o Read sentences aloud for students who benefit from hearing tone in a voice.

- Engagement ideas:

  o Let students create one original sentence for each tone and swap with a partner.

  o Turn it into a matching game by printing sentences and tone labels on separate pieces of paper.

- Extension ideas:

  o Have students rewrite one sentence to change the tone while keeping the general idea the same.

  o Ask students to explain which words in each sentence made them choose the tone they selected.
