Narrative Voice Builder Answer Key

Because this worksheet focuses on creativity, answers will vary. A completed paragraph should show:

- A narrator with a clear and consistent personality.
- Tone that matches the narrator's beliefs, emotions, and attitudes listed.
- Word choices that fit the narrator's style, such as confident, dramatic, sarcastic, calm, or cautious language.
- A strong sense that the narrator is a distinct character, not a neutral voice.

Teacher's Guide

- This worksheet helps students practice narrative voice, a key element in developing strong storytelling skills.
- Encourage students to think of their narrator as a full person with habits, opinions, and quirks.
- Differentiation tips:
 - Provide a list of tone words for students who need support choosing precise language.
 - Allow oral brainstorming before writing for students who organize ideas verbally.
- Engagement ideas:
 - Let students swap narrator profiles and write paragraphs using someone else's quiz answers.
 - Have volunteers read their paragraphs aloud and let the class guess the narrator's personality traits.
- Extension ideas:
 - Students can rewrite their paragraph in a completely different tone or personality.
 - Ask students to write a short scene where two narrators with contrasting voices both describe the same event.
