

Name _____

Talk It Out

Directions: Read the prompt. Write a narrative that includes at least one clear exchange of dialogue between characters. Use quotation marks correctly.

You and a friend discover a narrow hidden path behind the school garden. As you follow it, you notice strange footprints on the ground. Write a story about what happens next and include at least one moment where the characters talk to each other.

Your Story:
