Morning To Midnight

Directions: Write a detailed paragraph describing how your family celebrates New Year's Eve from morning to midnight. Be sure to use chronological order and transition words to show the sequence of events clearly.

Writing Prompt: New Year's Eve is a day full of excitement, reflection, and fun traditions. Think about how your family spends the day from sunrise to the stroke of midnight. What happens first? What do you do in the afternoon? How do you prepare for the celebration? Describe each part of the day in the order it happens so your reader can picture it clearly.

Use time-order transition words such as:

first, next, then, after that, before long, finally, at midnight.
