

Silent Signals

Directions: Read each question carefully. Choose the best answer (A-D) that matches the meaning of the vocabulary word about body language and facial expressions.

- Which word means the way someone holds their body while standing or sitting?
A. Gesture
B. Tone
C. Expression
D. Posture
- What is a quick movement of your hands, arms, or body to communicate something?
A. Signal
B. Gesture
C. Eye contact
D. Posture
- When you look directly into someone's eyes while talking, you are using what kind of nonverbal cue?
A. Eye contact
B. Gesture
C. Expression
D. Tone
- What word describes how your voice sounds when you speak, such as calm, angry, or excited?
A. Posture
B. Tone
C. Gesture
D. Signal
- Which term means the look on your face that shows how you feel?
A. Expression
B. Signal
C. Posture
D. Gesture
- When you wave to say hello, what kind of communication are you using?
A. Expression
B. Tone
C. Gesture
D. Posture
- Which word means something you do or show that gives information without using words?
A. Signal
B. Tone
C. Eye contact
D. Expression
- If your arms are crossed and your face looks serious, what are you showing through your body language?
A. You are relaxed and friendly
B. You might be angry or upset
C. You are trying to listen closely
D. You are excited and happy
- What kind of nonverbal cue shows respect and interest during a conversation?
A. Avoiding eye contact
B. Looking away often
C. Eye contact
D. Turning around
- When a teacher frowns while handing back a paper, which type of communication clue is being used?
A. Gesture
B. Tone
C. Posture
D. Expression