Nonverbal Cue Finders

Directions: Read each short scenario carefully. Pretend you are a nonverbal detective. Underline or highlight the body language and facial expression clues that show how the person is feeling.

1. During group work, Sam crossed his arms and stared at the floor while the others made decisions. He didn't say a word.
2. Janelle's eyes lit up and she leaned forward as her friend told a funny story. She clapped her hands and laughed loudly.
3. Marcus rolled his eyes and sighed when his teacher asked him to redo his homework. His shoulders slumped as he walked back to his desk.
4. When Emma's friend dropped her lunch tray, Emma's eyes widened and she ran to help. Her face looked worried, and she spoke quickly.
5. Theo smiled softly and gave a small wave when he saw his classmate sitting alone. He sat beside him and kept his body relaxed.
6. Nora turned away, avoided eye contact, and fidgeted with her pencil when asked to share her answer with the class.
7. After winning the game, Jordan's arms shot into the air, and he grinned from ear to ear. His voice was loud and cheerful.
