

Name _____

North American Landforms

Directions: Read each sentence carefully. Fill in the blank with the correct landform or geographic feature. Use classroom maps or reference materials if needed.

1. The _____ Mountains stretch from western Canada down into the United States and are one of the longest mountain ranges in North America.
2. The _____ River is one of the most important rivers in the United States and flows south into the Gulf of Mexico.
3. The _____ Desert in the southwestern United States is known for its hot temperatures and tall cactus plants.
4. The _____ Plains cover a large area of central North America and are known for their wide, flat grasslands.
5. The _____ Plateau in the western United States contains colorful rock formations and deep canyons.
6. The _____ River acts as part of the border between the United States and Mexico.
7. The _____ Mountains form a range in eastern North America and are known for their rounded, older peaks.
8. The _____ Valley in California is a very dry and low area that experiences extremely high temperatures.
9. The _____ Great Lakes region contains several large freshwater lakes shared by the United States and Canada.
10. The _____ Peninsula in Mexico separates the Gulf of Mexico from the Caribbean Sea.