(Sample Paraphrases)

These are example paraphrased versions. Students may produce different versions as long as the core ideas and tone remain intact.

Paragraph 1 – Sample Paraphrase

Cities are adding more green areas like parks and rooftop gardens to make life better for their residents. These spaces offer places to unwind, promote physical activity, and help fight pollution. Research also suggests that spending time in nature in urban environments can support better mental well-being.

Paragraph 2 – Sample Paraphrase

Remote learning has grown in popularity, especially after the COVID-19 pandemic. It lets students study from any location and provides schedule flexibility. Still, it can be difficult to stay engaged, and many students miss the face-to-face experience of a regular classroom.

Paragraph 3 – Sample Paraphrase

Bees are essential for pollinating many of the crops people eat, making them a key part of the food system. Sadly, their numbers are dropping because of pesticide use, loss of habitat, and disease. Saving bees is important not only for nature, but also for farming around the world.
