

Spot the Shift! Answer Key (Sample Evaluations)

1. ☒ Yes

- Explanation: The meaning is preserved. Vocabulary is changed ("kids" → "children", "built" → "created", "backyard" → "behind the house"), and the sentence structure is slightly altered.

2. ☐ No

- Explanation: The meaning has changed. "Always drinks coffee" is not the same as "usually has tea." Both the beverage and frequency differ.

3. ☒ Yes

- Explanation: The sentence uses different words ("knocked out power" → "lost electricity"), but the core message remains intact.

4. ☐ No

- Explanation: The subject, action, location, and time are all different. "Cat" → "dog", "under table" → "beneath couch", "day" → "night." This is not a proper paraphrase.

5. ☒ Yes

- Explanation: Though phrased differently, the meaning stays the same. The teacher made the assignment clear/easy to understand.
