On the day of Pentecost, Jesus' followers gathered together in Jerusalem. Suddenly, they heard a powerful noise like a rushing wind that filled the whole house. Flames appeared above their heads, and they felt the presence of the Holy Spirit giving them courage and strength. They began to speak in many different languages, and people from all over the world could understand their words. Peter stood up and explained to the crowd that this was a gift from God's Spirit. Everyone listened closely, and many people felt inspired to live with hope, kindness, and unity.
