Peter's Message Modernized

Directions: Rewrite Peter's message from Pentecost in your own words, as if you're explaining it to a friend today. Write 5-6 clear sentences.

Peter spoke to a crowd that was confused and amazed by everything happening. He wanted them to understand that something powerful and good was taking place. Imagine you are there, and you want your friends to understand the same message.

Write your rewritten version below:

✓ Remember:

- Use your own vocabulary
- Keep the main ideas true (encouragement, hope, unity, Holy Spirit)
- Make it understandable for someone your age today
