Tradition Tales

Directions: Think about a meaningful tradition, holiday, or cultural experience you have participated in. Write a short personal narrative that explains what happened, who was involved, and why this experience is important to you.

Choose one meaningful cultural moment from your life. It can be a celebration, a family tradition, a holiday, a shared meal, a special ceremony, or a community event. Describe the experience with clear actions, specific details, and your feelings during the moment. Then explain why this memory matters to you and what it shows about your culture, family, or community.
