Too Close Or Just Right?

Directions: Read each short story below. Think about how close the people are to each other. Circle Too Close or Just Right after each story.

1. Mia is standing shoulder-to-shoulder with her friend while waiting in line.

Too Close / Just Right

2. Liam gives his teacher a big hug when she says hello, even though she doesn't ask for one.

Too Close / Just Right

3. Zoe sits next to her friend at lunch, leaving a little space between them.

Too Close / Just Right

4. Ben leans in very close to look at another student's drawing.

Too Close / Just Right

5. Ava waves to her friend across the playground instead of running right up into their face.

Too Close / Just Right

6. Noah sits beside his friend during story time, keeping his hands to himself.

Too Close / Just Right

7. Ella whispers loudly in her friend's ear from only an inch away.

Too Close / Just Right

8. Max waits behind the line while his friend is drinking at the water fountain.
