Teacher's Guide

- Purpose: Helps students recognize and respect personal space through simple, relatable examples.
- Differentiation Tips:
 - For emerging readers, read scenarios aloud and use body movement to act out "too close" and "just right."
 - Provide visual supports such as pictures of people standing at different distances.
- Engagement Ideas:
 - Use a hula hoop or string to show what "personal space" looks like.
 - Have students role-play friendly greetings using proper distance.
- Extension Ideas:
 - Create a class "Personal Space Pledge" that students can sign.
 - Let students draw their own "too close" and "just right" situations.
