Talk It Up!

Directions: Read the plain dialogue below. Rewrite it to sound more realistic by adding phrasal verbs (like run into, put off, come up with, or look after). Make the conversation sound natural, lively, and true to how people really speak!

Avery: Hello, Jordan. Are you going to the art show this weekend?

Jordan: No, I decided not to attend. I have too much work to do.

Avery: That's too bad. I was hoping to see you there.

Jordan: I might still go if I can finish my work early.

Avery: Maybe we could meet at the coffee shop before going.

Jordan: That sounds fine. I will call you tomorrow to confirm.

Your Task: Rewrite the dialogue to make it sound like a real conversation between friends using at least six different phrasal verbs. Be creative but keep it natural.
Example: "I might still go if I can wrap up my work early."
