

Name _____

Fixing Mix-Ups

Directions: Each sentence below uses a phrasal verb incorrectly. Read carefully, spot the error, and rewrite the sentence using the correct phrasal verb so the meaning makes sense.

1. Don't forget to turn up the lights before you leave the room.
→ _____
2. My mom told me to give in my shoes before going outside.
→ _____
3. The movie was so boring that we decided to take up early.
→ _____
4. Please put on your homework to the teacher before recess.
→ _____
5. I tried to get on my old friend at the mall, but she didn't recognize me.
→ _____
6. The car broke out on the way to school, so we had to call a tow truck.
→ _____
7. Let's look after the meaning of this word in the dictionary.
→ _____
8. He was too tired to carry out with the race.
→ _____
9. We had to make up the picnic because it started raining.
→ _____
10. Please turn down your shoes before coming inside.
→ _____