Narrator's Lens

Directions: Read each short passage. Then answer the question: How does the narrator's perspective shape the mood or tone of the story?

1. I skipped down the sidewalk, humming to myself. The sun was shining, and everything felt perfect, as if the whole day was made just for me.

Answer: _____

2. You step into the empty house, the floorboards groaning under your weight. Shadows stretch across the walls, and a cold shiver runs down your spine.

Answer: _____

3. Marcus stared at the crumpled test paper in his hands. He thought about how hard he had studied, and a wave of disappointment crashed over him.

Answer: _____

4. The crowd roared with excitement as the players entered the stadium. From every corner, fans waved banners and shouted with joy, creating a wave of energy that filled the air.

Answer: _____

Extension Task: Choose one passage and rewrite it from a different narrator's lens. For example, take Passage 1 and rewrite it so the narrator is in a grumpy mood.
