

Name _____

Pronouns in Perspective

Directions: Read each passage. Hunt for pronouns that reveal the point of view. Highlight or underline the pronouns, then write which point of view the passage uses.

1. I pulled on my boots and grabbed my backpack. We were finally ready for the long hike up the hill.

Point of View: _____

2. You step onto the stage, your hands shaking. The spotlight blinds you, and you take a deep breath before speaking.

Point of View: _____

3. He raced to the finish line, while she cheered from the crowd. They both knew this was the biggest moment of their lives.

Point of View: _____

4. Our team practiced all afternoon, and I could feel my energy draining. Still, we were determined to win the game.

Point of View: _____

5. Samantha opened her notebook and scribbled quickly. She wanted to finish the story before her teacher collected the papers.

Point of View: _____

Extension Task: Choose one of the passages and replace the pronouns to change it into a different point of view. For example, turn Passage 1 from first-person into third-person.