Directions: Read the short passage below. Then use the Venn diagram to compare the two characters' perspectives. Write details about how each character sees the situation, and what they both share in the middle.

Lena and Marcus stood at the edge of the roller coaster line. Lena bounced on her toes, excited for the loops and drops ahead. "This is going to be amazing!" she said, grinning. Marcus crossed his arms and frowned. He glanced nervously at the towering track. "I don't know about this," he muttered. "It looks terrifying."
