Teacher Notes

- Focus Point: This activity practices present continuous in a realistic dialogue format, helping students see how grammar appears in conversation.
- Teaching Tip: Read the dialogues aloud as a class. Have students practice filling in blanks first, then act out the dialogues with correct answers.
- Extension Idea: Pair students and ask them to create a new short dialogue with at least three present continuous verbs.
- Common Mistakes: Watch for subject-verb agreement (e.g., students may write She are playing instead of She is playing). Remind them to always match am, is, are with the subject.
