

Reaching Heights Answer Key

Completed Passage

Lila loves mountain climbing. Over the past few years, she has trained hard to improve her strength and endurance. She has climbed several small mountains near her hometown. Her coach and friends have encouraged her every step of the way.

This year, Lila set her sights on Mount Aurora, the tallest peak in the region. She has prepared carefully by exercising daily and eating healthy meals. Her team has packed all the necessary gear, and they have checked their ropes and supplies twice.

Now, Lila is standing at the top of Mount Aurora. She is smiling because she has reached her goal at last. She says, "I couldn't have done it without the people who have supported me."

Comprehension Questions (Sample Answers)

Teacher's Notes

- Focus Point: This combines gap-fill grammar practice with reading comprehension, ensuring students apply the tense meaningfully.
- Common Issues: Watch for incorrect past participle forms (climbed vs. have climb). Encourage rereading for sense.
- Extension: Ask students to write a short paragraph about a personal goal they have achieved using present perfect.
- Differentiation: Advanced learners can insert time markers (already, yet, never, just) into the story for enrichment.
