

Name _____

Commander-in-Choices

Directions: Read each presidential dilemma. Decide what you would do and explain why in 3-5 thoughtful sentences using strong reasoning.

1. Scientists ask for funding to explore a new medicine that might save millions of lives one day-but it's risky and expensive. Do you:

- A) Approve the funding and support innovation
- B) Spend money only on proven medical care for now

Your decision & why:

2. A company wants to build factories that will create thousands of jobs, but the land is part of a beautiful national park. Do you:

- A) Approve the factories to help the economy
- B) Protect the park and find another solution

Your decision & why:

3. A major storm has damaged many homes. Some people know the facts; others are confused and scared. Do you:

- A) Give a quick message right away to calm the public
- B) Wait until all details are confirmed to avoid misinformation

Your decision & why:
