Positive Endings

Directions: Read each unfinished story below. Imagine what could happen next to solve the problem in a kind and smart way. Write three sentences that show a positive ending to each situation.

1. The Missing Pencil: Marcus borrowed Ava's favorite pencil during art class. When it was time to clean up, he accidentally put it in his own pencil box and took it home. The next day, Ava noticed her pencil was gone and looked upset. What happens next?
2. The Recess Argument: Jordan and Mia both wanted to be the leader in a group game at recess. They started shouting over each other and the other kids stopped playing. What happens next?
3. The Group Project Trouble: During a class project, Carlos wanted to use markers, but Sam wanted to use crayons. They started arguing and wouldn't work together. The project was due the next day. What happens next?
4. The Lunch Mix-Up: Sophie opened her lunchbox and realized someone had taken her sandwich by mistake. She looked around and saw Emma eating the same kind of sandwich. What happens next?
5. The Broken Ruler: Owen borrowed his friend's ruler and accidentally broke it while measuring his science project. He didn't know what to do and felt nervous. What happens next?
