

Name _____

Choices And Consequences

Directions: Read each situation carefully. Match the cause (the choice someone makes) with the effect (the likely outcome). Write the letter of the correct effect next to each number.

Causes (Choices):

- ____ 1. You yell at your classmate when they accidentally bump into you.
- ____ 2. You stay calm and explain why you are upset.
- ____ 3. You ignore your group's ideas and do all the work your way.
- ____ 4. You listen to everyone's thoughts and work together.
- ____ 5. You lie to your teacher about forgetting your homework.
- ____ 6. You admit you forgot and ask for extra time.
- ____ 7. You laugh at a friend who made a mistake in front of others.
- ____ 8. You encourage your friend and help them fix the mistake.

Effects (Outcomes):

- A. You gain trust and show responsibility.
- B. Your friend feels embarrassed and hurt.
- C. You lose your temper and damage your friendship.
- D. You build respect and find a peaceful solution.
- E. Your group feels frustrated and stops cooperating.
- F. Your group feels proud and completes the project successfully.
- G. You damage trust and may face consequences later.
- H. Your friend feels supported and more confident.