Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips:
 - Read each scenario aloud for students who need support with reading.
 - Offer visual cue cards showing calm, kind, or unkind actions.
 - Allow verbal responses instead of written circles for emerging writers.
- Engagement Ideas:
 - Act out one or two scenarios using puppets or role-play.
 - Have students explain why their chosen answer helps solve the problem.
 - Reinforce with real-life examples from the classroom or playground.
- Extension Activities:
 - Students draw their own "What Would You Do?" scenario.
 - Create a class "Problem-Solver Poster" listing helpful choices.
 - Discuss how to use calm words and safe actions when solving problems.
