Rewrite Like a Pro

AI answers depend on how you ask the question. A vague prompt gets one kind of answer, but add detail, change the tone, or give constraints, and you'll get something very different. Your mission: take the same task and rewrite it five different ways-one could be formal, another playful, one super specific, one open-ended, and one with a creative twist. After writing your five variations, decide which one is strongest and which one would probably trip the AI up.

The Task: "Summarize this article."

Your Turn: Prompt Variations

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

Reflection

Which variation do you think is strongest? Why?

Which one would probably confuse the AI the most?
