

Name _____

Hunting Down Sneaky Bias

Sometimes prompts aren't neutral—they sneak in bias, assumptions, or loaded language. That means the AI could respond unfairly, one-sided, or even misleadingly. Your job: read each biased prompt, spot what's wrong, and rewrite it in a neutral, fair way. Think of yourself as a detective: sniff out the hidden slant and clean it up.

Prompt 1 - Biased Version: "Why are electric cars always better than gas-powered cars?"

What's the bias/assumption?

Neutral Rewrite:

Prompt 2 - Biased Version: "Explain why people who don't exercise are lazy."

What's the bias/assumption?

Neutral Rewrite:

Prompt 3 - Biased Version: "Describe why online learning is worse than in-person school."

What's the bias/assumption?

Neutral Rewrite:

Prompt 4 - Biased Version: "Why is one country's government the smartest way to run things?"

What's the bias/assumption?

Neutral Rewrite:

