

Name _____

Antecedent Allies

Directions: Each sentence below is missing a pronoun. Choose the correct pronoun from the options in parentheses so it agrees with the antecedent. Write your answer in the blank. Be careful, antecedents may be singular, plural, compound, or indefinite pronouns.

1. Every student in the class brought _____ own notebook. (his/her, their)
2. The dogs barked loudly because _____ saw the delivery truck. (it, they)
3. Neither of the brothers wanted to share _____ dessert. (his, their)
4. Maria and Lila said that _____ would meet us at the library. (she, they)
5. Someone left _____ backpack under the table. (his or her, their)
6. The committee has made _____ decision about the school dance. (its, their)
7. If anyone forgets _____ homework, the teacher will be upset. (his/her, their)
8. The players celebrated after _____ team won the championship. (its, their)
9. Each of the paintings has _____ own story to tell. (its, their)
10. Jack or the twins will bring _____ camera for the trip. (his, their)
11. Everybody in the choir wore _____ uniform to the concert. (his or her, their)
12. Neither the teacher nor the students remembered to bring _____ lunches.
(his, their)
13. The company announced that _____ would be hiring new workers. (it, they)
14. Few of the athletes forgot _____ water bottles on the bus. (his, their)
15. Both Liam and Ava finished _____ projects early. (his, their)