Edit And Comprehend

Directions: Read the short story carefully. It contains 8 pronoun-antecedent agreement errors. Underline each mistake and rewrite the story correctly. After editing, answer the comprehension questions that follow.

The debate team prepared for their competition, and each of the students carried their notes in a folder. Everyone wanted to do their best, and neither of the captains remembered their speech until the last minute. The committee of judges announced their decision to start early, so the twins quickly gathered his things. One of the speakers forgot their introduction, but Maria and Sofia reminded her of the opening lines.

1. Who carried notes in a folder?

2. What did neither of the captains remember?

3. What decision did the committee of judges announce?

4. Who reminded the speaker about the introduction?
