

Name _____

The Antecedent Flip

Directions: Each sentence below contains an antecedent and a pronoun. Your job is to replace the antecedent with the one in parentheses and then adjust the pronoun so it still agrees correctly. Write the new sentence with proper pronoun-antecedent agreement.

1. The teacher explained her plan for the project. (teachers)

2. Every runner wore his or her uniform proudly. (runners)

3. The dog wagged its tail happily. (dogs)

4. Somebody left his or her phone on the desk. (students)

5. Neither of the boys finished his homework. (both boys)

6. The committee announced its decision. (committees)

7. Maria carried her backpack to class. (Maria and Sofia)

8. One of the pencils broke its tip. (the pencils)

9. The team won its game. (players)

10. Each child shared his or her story. (children)