Teacher Notes

- This exercise blends reading comprehension with pronoun-antecedent accuracy, requiring students to restate answers instead of giving fragments.
- Encourage students to underline or highlight pronouns in their answers to double-check agreement.
- Common pitfalls:
 - Using plural pronouns (their) for singular indefinite pronouns like each or everyone.
 - Forgetting that collective nouns (committee, group) are usually singular when acting as one unit.
- Extension: Have students write two more comprehension questions of their own and swap with a partner to answer.
