  - Provide a proverb reference list before the activity for students who need vocabulary support.
- Engagement Ideas:
  - Have students write short, two-sentence "mini stories" that illustrate a proverb of their choice.
  - Use this as a team quiz game-students read aloud and others guess the proverb.
  - Encourage learners to act out one of the scenarios in small groups.
- Extension Activities:
  - Assign students to find real-life examples (from books, history, or current events) where a proverb applies.
  - Ask learners to rewrite one proverb in modern slang or social-media style and explain its meaning.
  - Create a class "Proverb Anthology" where each student contributes a story that illustrates timeless wisdom.
