Teacher's Guide

- Differentiation Tips:
 - For younger or struggling readers, provide a short list of possible endings to choose from.
 - For older or advanced learners, have them explain or illustrate the meaning of each completed proverb.
- Engagement Ideas:
 - Turn this activity into a "Proverb Relay" where students race to finish and explain sayings on the board.
 - Encourage students to create modern or humorous versions of the proverbs ("A stitch in time saves Wi-Fi!").
- Extension Activities:
 - Have students research the origin of one proverb and present how it applies today.
 - Ask students to write short journal entries about a real-life situation that matches one of the proverbs.
 - Let students act out one proverb as a short skit to deepen understanding and retention.
