Teacher's Guide

- Read the passage aloud once before students read independently to support decoding of qu words.
- Encourage students to underline or highlight qu words to reinforce blend recognition through connected text.
- Guide struggling readers by discussing each question and locating the answer directly in the passage to build text evidence skills.
- Extend the activity by asking students to write a new sentence that continues the story using at least one qu word or by having them illustrate their favorite moment.
