Teacher's Guide

- Begin by reviewing each r-blend and modeling how to attach a blend to an ending.
- Encourage students to read each attempt out loud to decide if it is a real word.
- Support learners by giving picture cues for a few sample words before they work independently.
- For students who need extra scaffolding, limit them to two endings at first.
- Challenge advanced students to create sentences using three of their real words or to add their own endings to expand the activity.
